Dear Families:

We have made it through the first week of classes online! Though it wasn't perfect (though better than we could have hoped for), we are very proud of the hard work that our staff and students put in to make it happen. I am also proud to say that Brays Oaks had amongst the highest overall attendance online in the YES Prep system! We know that none of our hard work would have led to this achievement without the help from our parents and guardians helping us get students online. For that, we thank you.

We will not have school on Monday in observance of Labor Day. Virtual school will resume on Tuesday, September 8th at 8:30a.m. As always, our most up to date links and announcements are available at http://tinyurl.com/brayscovid19.

YES Prep Communication About Re- Opening & Brays	<ul> <li>Every family should have received messaging from Mark DiBella, YES Prep's CEO on Friday about re-opening of YES Prep campuses. Please be sure to read his email, which you can find here. You can also watch a video that outlines YES Prep's reopening plans here.</li> <li>In Mr. DiBella's email, he outlines that YES Prep Public Schools will provide an option for students with special needs to return in person starting September 28th. All students will receive the option to return in person starting the week of October 19th. All virtual programming will remain available to families throughout the year. Families will have the opportunity to take a survey starting Friday, September 11 to elect whether they would prefer in-person or virtual instruction upon our reopening.</li> </ul>
